Children’s mental illness is a major issue in our community.

1 in 2 of all lifetime cases of mental illness begin by age 14.

1 in 5 children in the US have a mental illness, though many go undiagnosed.

1 in 7 14% of Texas Hispanic high school students report having made a suicide plan. Suicide is the 2nd leading cause of death in children.

Learn more at 1in5minds.org  @1in5minds
Children suffer from...

Types of mental disorders diagnosed at Clarity CGC (scale is based on disorder frequency)

Learn more at 1in5minds.org
@1in5minds
1 in 4 Bexar County children live in poverty, yet 40,710 children are not yet enrolled with Medicaid.

1 in 5 children with mental disorders actually receive treatment.

There are barriers to treatment.

Learn more at 1in5minds.org
If children are not treated...

- 50% of children with a serious emotional disturbance drop out of high school.
- Untreated children are twice as likely to abuse drugs and alcohol.
- 1 in 2 juveniles incarcerated have an undiagnosed mental illness.

Learn more at 1in5minds.org

@1in5minds
9 in 10 parents reported an improvement in their child after treatment at Clarity CGC.

Learn more at 1in5minds.org
@1in5minds

Treatment helps.